A WALK TO REMEMBER

- What better way to experience the warmth and grandeur of Colombo than to take a guided walk through some of its famous streets?
- You will meet your host for the morning at 0700 hours or evening at 1500 hours near the World Trade Centre, a landmark hard to miss.
- Colombo is considered a shopper's paradise with a fine selection of local malls, Sri Lankan art and handicrafts. However, on this walk you will explore the world-famous streets of Fort and Pettah where you can find just about anything you want, from street food and electronics to clothes and books
- You will be also able to experience first-hand Colombo's multi-cultural roots with its colonial architectural marvels as well as its multi-religious places of worship. Temples, Kovils, Mosques and Churches are commonly seen across the city, each with a unique story to tell.
- Witness the great colonial influences within the city from street names, to food, to architecture. The Portuguese, Dutch and British colonists who once occupied this great city have each left their respective and unique marks on Colombo.

- Learn more than you can from a guide book with our experienced English-speaking guide. Well-versed in the inner-workings of Colombo, he will always be prepared to impart his knowledge of this fine city's history.
- Our walks are usually around 3 to 4 hours and are conducted in the early mornings or late afternoons. These times allow relative comfort when the humidity of Colombo's tropical conditions is far less intense. This also helps you experience the city when it is getting into/unwinding (whichever you prefer!) from the hustle and bustle of the day.
