Climb the ancient rock mountain like a 3rd century monk – Pidurangala

“Reach a life-changing sunrise and view of Sigiriya Rock, while traversing a rock mountain peppered with caves and cells used by 3rd century monks on Pidurangala Rock.”

SLDT/1811/Ex18

Why should you book this trip?

- Pidurangala rock is adjacent to the Sigiriya Rock and offers a memorable climb with a breathtaking panoramic view of the valleys and the Lion Rock itself (Sigiriya).
- Pidurangala is a popular spot especially to watch sunrise.
- The Pidurangala monastery complex is the place where King Kashyapa (477-495 AC) worshipped and used to relocate the monks dwelling at Sigiriya.
- You will be led by an experienced guide who has stories of the bygone royal era.
