Tour in brief

- As your host guides you through the lesser-known parts of Colombo, discover how a delicious range of street food plays an important role in culture and unity.
- Wander through Colombo as evening draws in, where food, often in unusual guises, is everywhere. Begin with a shot of local Arrack in a local bar and wander past enticing shops and bustling streets.
- When you reach the thriving Hulftsdorp Street you will indulge in traditional sweets and pots of bubbling curry. After that you will be escorted in a tuk tuk to Galle Face, where you will join your final food vendor for your main meal. You will never be pressured to try food or drink and we cannot guarantee hygiene standards but this is the perfect opportunity to learn about the city's sights and aromas.
