Tour in brief

- The Beligala Village tour starts with the Beligala Temple, where you will meet the honorable monk in the temple. The monk will describe the historical importance of the stupa, bo tree, tooth relic palace, and moonstone.
- After the temple visit, you will walk through the paddy field and visit Manioc plantation. You will be provided with a freshly prepared Sri Lankan breakfast (milk rice or manioc and belimal drink). After breakfast you will be escorted to the vegetable chena. You will be able to learn all the fascinating techniques that farmers use for their cultivation. After the experience, visit Ambalama and refresh yourself with a king coconut and a village fruit buffet while you listen to folk poetry.
- After that, you will be able to visit the chief farmer's paddy field. After having lunch (rice & curry, and fruit salad) you're off on a trek to Beligala rock. At the top of the mountain, you will have a small break of 20 minutes, this will be complemented by an evening refreshment along with srilankan traditional sweets (Helapa, Walithalapa). The experience will end at 3.30 pm.
